Crescent City Stewards Uncover Turf Job in Connection With Hicks's Bad Riding.

IOWA CLUB UNDER THE BAN.

Grefer and Stitzel's Sheets Showed That They Took Great Liberties With Mounts of the Jockey Now Under Suspension.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

New Orleans, La., Dec. 17.-The racitig stewards uncovered a big turf job when they began to look into Jockey W. Hicks's bad rides on four favorites Tuesday. The lowa Club was reported to have taken great liberties with Hicks's mounts. The sheets of the book showed that the concern had run Moabina up to $1,000, and had taken in only $2 on the other horses in the race. On the strength of these facts the stewards have recommended that F. J. Grefer and W. Stitzel, who operated the book, be ruled off the turf. Stitzel and Grefer hall from Dubuque, In., so it is said. M'PADDEN TO BOX JACK M'CLELLAND.

Men Will Meet at the West End Club in a Bout Scheduled for Twenty Rounds.

BOTH ARE IN GOOD CONDITION.

McCielland Probably Will Be Slightly the Heavier and Is the Pavorite in Betting.

High McPadden and Jack McClelland ill class at the West End Club this eveng in a sparring contest, scheduled to go wenty rounds. Both men are in splendid andition and a good contest should result. The winner will be matched with Brooklyn Tomay Sullivan for a twenty-round bout New Year's Eve.

As a preliminary, Young Scotty and Jack Keefe will tie up in an eight-round go at 129 pointia. Scotty is a Chicago product and is a hard-hitting scrapper, who recently forght a draw with Tem Cody, and who has form well in opening events. He is being handled by Emil Thiry, who trained Forbes and Bernstein when those men made their appearance in this city. Emil claims that cotty is one of the best preliminary men Scotty is one of the best preliminary men in the business.

Analy Daley, who was to have met Keefe, wired yesterday that his nakle had been sprained while he was working, and he could not come. Thiry brought Scotty on, in response to a telegram from Haughton, and states that the man substituted will put up as good a buttle as Daley.

Mer'adden and McClelland will the up at 126 pounds and are to weigh in at 3 o'clock to-day. Both men are in perfect condition and both should make the weight without difficulty. McClelland is probably a shade and both should make the weight without difficulty. McClelland is probably a shade the heavier of the two. He looks in even better trim than when he fought Brooklyn Tommy Sullivan here a few weeks ago. His manager, Jimmy Mason, states that he will put up the best lattle of his list here.

McClelland is a slight favorite among the sporting men of the city, and, though the lew bets recorded have been made at even money. Jack seems likely to be an addson choice at the ringside. Several offers have been made by persons willing to bet that McClelland knocks his opponent out before fifteen rounds have been fought, but the odds asked are not sufficiently satisfactory to find any takers of the proposition.

The outlook for the beat is the lock of the proposition.

of his right hand to-night, and it is conceded he has a punch stored away that will carry disaster with it if it lands properly. McClelland undoubtedly seems to have the call in hitting power, however. The wilter's personal opinion is that McClelland will win the right. schedule will be strictly adhered

Brooklyn Tommy Sullivan, who is to meet

Paris, Dec. 17.—J. Reiff, the American jockey, to-day was ewarded $300 damages by the Ninth Correctional Tribunal in his case against the Vie au Grand Air, arising each occasion.

Tommy said last evening that he wanted to fight McClelland at 124 pounds New insert the judgment in its columns. The Year's Eve, and that he would try and get on the match at that figure. He claims that he can fight at 122, and that the 126-pound mark was in McClelland's favor last time. On this occasion, he wants a bout at a weight where the men will be evenly time. On this occasion, he wants a bout at a weight where the men will be evenly matched.

Charley Haughton probably will schedule the bout at 13 pounds if McClelland can make that weight. Considering the good chowing put up by Sullivan for six rounds of the men's last meeting, when it was admitted that Tommy was not in the best of trim, this should make the return match of isterest.

"I was slow and sore in that contest." said Sullivan yesterday, "and my friends could see how I stood back against the ropes several times instead of being able to silp around and away. I will be in great shape by the last of the menth and I will put up a different sort of battle. McClelland will find me a different proposition then, all right."

Tommy looks in the best of health at present and has a clear, high color, but states that he needs ten days to work into his best trim. Hence the abandonment of the bout for Christmas Eve, which was first planned.

did not believe he pulled the horse in question.

The trainer of Saint Saulge declared the horse to be unreliable and said he never trusted him. He ran very badly on the day of the race because he was ill. Saint Saulge has been raced against the advice of the trainer, who testified that he could not understand how Relif could be accused of pulling the horse, as he had ridden him energetically and according to orders.

The owner of Saint Saulge said he was surprised that the horse had lost, as he believed he had a good chance of winning and he had been ridden by the best lockey in France. The owner said he had investigated the reason why the horse lost and ridden him too hard at the start and had used the whip too much. He testified also that he did not think Saint Saulge had been pulled up and that Relif had ridden for him subsequently. pulled up and that Reiff had ridden for him subsequently. following at the club to-night. The East Side man is the most popular pugilist turned out in this section of late and he seems of more merit than any man produced recently. Whenever he appears at the club, it is easy to discover where the East Side patrons are. A continual stream of encouraging hows on Keefe's behalf always The Kern Junior football team has organized and would like to hear from clubs in the 14 and 15 year classes. Dave Schilte of emanates from that section of the arena.

If Keefe wins this evening's bout, he will be in line for matches with better men. He will probably have two or three men of reputation brought here for him to meet in semiwindups. Two association games were played at the Christian Brothers' campus yesterday in the college league, the team headed by Foley winning from that captained by Longinotti by a score of 1 to 0. Jackson's and Riordan's team played a tie with 3 goals each. The standing of the clubs is: Foley, 2; Riordan, 5; Longinotti, 5; Jackson, 1; Longs, 0.

JOHN L'S ENGAGEMENT CANCELED. ls: Former Fighter Appeared on Stage of Detroit Theater Intoxicated.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.
Detroit, Dec. 17.—John L. Sullivan is today at the Hotel Campus sleeping off a thirty-six-hour "round of pleasure." He retired early this morning without even taking off his shoes. A red blanket was wound around him when he was awakened by a reporter. He sat up in bed and blinked his bleary eyes. Although he had received $300 from his manager but a few hours before, he failed to find even a solitary nickel for a glass of beer.

"This is a rum go," he said. "Here I am sealn a hom." "This is a rum go, he said again a bum.

This is Detroit, isn't it? I remember I was over in Ed Gillman's and that is all I do remember. I feel rather wuzzy to-day. If some kind-hearted gentleman would only come around here and hit me on the head with an ax, what a great thing he would be doing humanity."
